An evening of the music of Jimi Hendrix and ZZ Top - plus their usual set

THE HAMSTERS FRI 13TH MARCH

Doors open 8pm • Tickets £12.50 • Full Bar

Bands come and go, but still The Hamsters reign supreme as the very best blues/rock band in the country. Having played over 4,000 gigs, they have built up a tremendous fan base.

For this special evening The Hamsters also show themselves as the finest interpreters of the music of Jimi Hendrix. Add to this the magic of ZZ Top and you have a show that has brought the following quotes: "No one does Jimi Hendrix and ZZ Top better" - The Times. "Technically flawless - before The Hamsters, no one had contemplated Hendrix covers on such a scale" - Vox.

MIKE SANCHEZ & BAND FRI 24TH APRIL

Doors open 8pm • Tickets £15 • Full Bar

From the first time I put Mike on in 1997 when he was with the "Big Town Playboys", and subsequent gigs both with the Playboys and his own band, he has undoubtedly become the finest exponent of 1940's and 1950's rhythm and blues and rock 'n' roll that we have seen in this country. He is a charismatic, all singing, piano-pounding front man, keeping the flame fiercely alive for the music of such artists as Fats Domino, Little Richard, Jerry Lee Lewis, Amos Milburn, Roy Brown and many more. Add to that a band comprising guitar, slap bass, drums and horn section, and the result is intoxicating. Fans include Sir Paul McCartney, Eric Clapton, Robert Plant and Jools Holland. Mike made many new friends when touring with Bill Wyman's Rhythm Kings, as he did at his previous sold out show at Woolmer Hill in 2006. Why not join them!

ALBERT LEE & HOGAN'S HEROES FRI 12TH JUNE

Doors open 8pm • Tickets £16 • Full Bar

My last promotion with Albert Lee and Hogan's Heroes was the final gig before the Chiddingfold club closed in 2008. Eric Clapton in the foreword to Albert's recently published biography expressed his wonderment whilst watching him at the club, of not only Albert's supreme guitar playing but also the quality of his singing. But ask any guitarist of note and they will rate Albert Lee as one of the finest guitarists in the world. The roll call of artists that have played with him is endless, such as Eric Clapton, Brian May, Emmylou Harris, the Everly Brothers, Willie Nelson and Joe Cocker. When he is not touring with Bill Wyman's Rhythm Kings, Grammy award winning Albert fronts Hogan's Heroes; that includes world renowned pedal steel guitarist Gerry Hogan.

THE OVERTURES FRI 16TH OCTOBER

Doors open 8pm • Tickets £15 • Full Bar

Many people have said to me that the Overtures gig at Woolmer Hill in 2008 was one of the most exciting they had ever witnessed. To merely call them a 60's cover band is to do them a great disservice because they play with such verve, skill and boundless energy that it makes you feel you are hearing the classics from the Beatles, the Stones, the Who, the Beach Boys, Wilson Pickett et al for the first time. No wonder Sir Elton John chose them to be his support last New Year's Eve at the O2 Arena in front of 17,000 people. To quote Sir Elton in GQ Magazine: "They are just the best band of their kind in the world"
